

FREE TO FALL

Words and Music by David Mowry

Verse 1

I walked fifteen miles in cold bare feet to be with you tonight. I got my heart out on my ragged sleeve; I won't leave without a fight. Cause I've come backwhoa baby I've come back, oh yeah.

Verse 2

I'm out on your porch like a wounded pup; I never meant to leave you for long. Now you're telling me you got another man, oh baby I know that I've done you wrong. But I've come back, baby, I've come back, oh yeah.

Chorus:

I'm out here on these church house steps and I'm weepin' like a Willow Tree. Ain't no record business that'll have me now I'm cut loose I'm set free... and I'm...

First Refrain:

Free to fall, I'm free to fall. I'm free to fall, yes I'm free to fall

Verse 3:

Now I've got myself a sure excuse to slip down in a hole. I'll just find me some poor broke down girl and lose my very soul....cause I can't get back. No baby, I can't get back, to you.

Second Refrain:

Now I'm out here on this little town square like a man right out of his tree, ain't no friend or foe that'll have me now, I'm cut loose baby, I'm set free. And I'm...

Outro:

Free to fall, yes I'm free to fall. Well I'm free to fall; yes, I'm free to fall.
Now I'm free to fall, you know I'm free to fall. Well I'm free to fall, oh yes
I'm free to fall.
